

A person's back is shown from behind, with their hands clasped behind their head. The phrase "I'm afraid" is written in black marker across the lower back. The background is a light blue-grey color, overlaid with a dense, chaotic network of thin, black, scribbled lines. Faint, semi-transparent text is scattered throughout the background, including words like "curious", "think I", "briefly", "she", "us", "I'm af", "revel", and "B".
